

Arts and Humanities Meeting - Minutes - 4/3/17

Attendees: Kim Weismann, Lynne Raymond, Richard Stenberg, Matt Peterson, Kirby Lund, Lino Azevedo, Steve Grunenwald.

1. Movement to approve 3/6/17 minutes. Approved.

2. Movement to approve 3/20/17 minutes. Approved.

3. Blackboard Training - Discussion between Kim Weismann and Kim Wray. Others not liking the process. Training is not very hands-on, will now be.

4. PHIL 215 COG – Previously approved on 3/6/17. (Brain lapse by Kim)

5. Rubrics to approve E-portfolio / Open Discussion?

Oral communication vs. written? Objective Grading. Writing test/analysis. Can students write reflections? Lack of caring? Not taking writing seriously in non-English classes? Time management expectations are covered in strategies class. Not to be covered during regular class time. Objective grading. Continuing topic since 2011. Plagiarism section in writing rubric?

6. Self-paced German class at UND. As online class. Students would pay UND the tuition. Not on Fall Schedule (word of mouth.)

7. Fall Syllabi will be due to by August 21st by 4pm (must be completely approved.)

8. Courses for Fall and Spring: Kim wrote “HUGE” report on why certain classes are still going on even with low numbers. For example: classes needed by students who have exhausted other A&H requirements.

9. Committee Updates:

- Valley City will be on campus on Wednesday 4/5. Sherry Oakland (Chair of Education) and company.

- Gen Ed Summit on Friday, 4/7.

- Diversity Week. Look at the different events for each day.

- Senate Bill / Richard: Standardization of 2 year schools. Shared everything. Limited identity. Community colleges could become “satellites”.

- May 1st due date for William’s County Scholarship.

- Faculty members and spouses out to dinner one night?
